John Will Kahlbau: John Will (age 7) got an official diagnosis of chronic myeloid leukemia (CML), the better of the 3 types of leukemia. Due to his counts and the fact that he is a “healthy” child, he could do treatment at home. He takes 3 pills every night before bedtime. If it’s working, then they will move on to a different chemo. If it isn’t working, then he will continue on the current pill until his body starts reacting to it (best friends of Andrew Thompson in Fairhope, Al).

Meredith Shamblin: 33 year old who had a massive stroke and is in the hospital trying to get mobility and sight back (daughter of Randy Thompson’s cousin).
